When life suddenly turns upside down, there, in the midst of your trials and in the center of your pain, is God—comforting, guiding, encouraging, teaching, sustaining. Dr. Jeremiah clearly and simply separates fact from fiction as it relates to angels. I want you to know the God you don't know as well as you should. The study of God, as He reveals Himself in Scripture, is the supreme study of a lifetime. It lifts our thoughts, steadies our nerves, purifies our motives, expands our confidence, and strengthens our influence. As king, he committed the double crime of adultery and murder, nevertheless, he was called “a man of after God’s own heart,” Do you need a nevertheless to be written into your biography? Fortunately, God has plenty to go around. You face giants; nevertheless, God will strengthen you. Turn a deaf ear to discouraging voices, and open your eyes to new choices. How long since you loaded your sling and took a swing at your giant? The God who made a miracle out of David stands ready to make a miracle out of you!

Book # 658 Because of Bethlehem by Max Lucado (Narrator: Kathleen Lane)

Max Lucado loves Christmas. Let the sleigh bells ring. Let the carolers sing. The more Santa’s the merrier. The more trees the better. He loves it because somewhere someone will ask the Christmas questions: What’s the big deal about the baby in the manger? Who was he? What does his birth have to do with me? And the answers he’s found give us all hope. God knows what it’s like to be a human. When we talk to him about deadlines or long lines or tough times, he understands. He’s been there. He’s been here. Because of Bethlehem, we have a friend in heaven. And Christmas begins what Easter celebrates. The child in the cradle became the King on the cross. Because of Bethlehem, we have a Savior in heaven. These are the heart shaping promises of Christmas. Long after the guests have left and the carolers have gone home and the lights have come down, these promises endure. Let’s turn on the lamp, curl up in a comfortable spot, and look into the odd, wonderful story of Bethlehem. Max has found a lifetime of hope. We will too.

667 In the Eye of the Storm by Max Lucado (Narrator: Kathleen Lane)

Come face-to-face with Jesus when He experienced more stress than any other day of His life aside from His crucifixion. Before the morning became evening, he had reason to weep, run, shout, curse, praise, and doubt. If you know what it means to be caught in life’s storms...if you’ve ever ridden the roller coaster of sorrow and celebration...if you’ve ever wondered if God in Heaven can relate to you on earth, then this book will encourage and inspire you. (The study guide IS on the last tape.)

Book # 669 Fearless: Imagine Your Life Without Fear by Max Lucado (Narrator: Kathleen Lane)

Imagine your life, wholly untouched by anxiety or dread. What if faith, not fear, was your default reaction to threats? If you could hover a fear magnet over your heart and extract every last shaving of dread, insecurity, or doubt, what would remain? Envision the day when you can trust more and fear less.

Book # 682 Just Like Jesus by Max Lucado (Narrator: Kathleen Lane)

Where did we get this idea that we can’t change? From whence come such statements as these?

“I’ll always be pessimistic. I’m just that way.”

"I can't help the way I react. I have a bad temper."

Such thoughts are not from God. He can no more leave a life unchanged than a mother can leave a tear untouched. His plan for you is nothing short of a new heart. If you were a car, God would want control of your engine. If you were a computer, God would claim the software and the hard drive. If you were an airplane, he'd take his seat in the cockpit. But you are a person, so God wants to change your heart. God loves you just the way you are, but He refuses to leave you there. He wants you to have a heart like His. He wants you to be JUST LIKE JESUS.

Book # 697 Let the Journey Begin by Max Lucado (Narrator: Kathleen Lane)

Deep in every heart you will find it: a longing for meaning, a quest for purpose.

If you ask the secularists what is the meaning of life they will say, "We don't know." At best they might agree that we are developed animals. At worst, rearranged space dust. What a contrast to God's vision for life: "we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to devote ourselves to the good deeds for which God has designed us" (Eph. 2:10).

God has placed His hand on your shoulder and said, "You're something special." Untethered by time, He sees us all. In fact, He saw us before we were born. And He loves what He sees. Flooded by emotion. Overcome by pride, the Starmaker turns to us, one by one and says, "You are my child. I love you dearly." And He loves us forever. Should you ever turn from Him and walk away, He has already provided a way back. Nothing can separate you from His love. If you anchor these truths firmly in your heart, you will be ready for whatever you may encounter on the road ahead. SO LET THE JOURNEY BEGIN.
